J. P. Pryor favored our sanctum with a call last Thursday evening. He is taking orders for "The Campaigner of Forrest," a book that will be ready to deliver soon, and which every man, woman and child should read.

PAY UP, ON WH STATE.—For the last time we request those who are indebted to us to come forward and settle. Every one who owes us for subscription will find a RED CROSS on the margin of this paper.

PERSONAL.—During the past week we have been favored with a call from R. W. Aldie, traveling agent of the Memphis Daily Appeal, from whom we learn that arrangements have been made for the prompt delivery of all mail matter from Memphis to this and other points along the Central road.

Jacob Frolich, Jr., editor of the White County (Ark.) Record, also honored us with a call. He is looking remarkably well.

Death of Edwin Crawford.—It is our painful task to record the death of this aged and highly-esteemed gentleman. On last Thursday evening, after an illness of eight or ten days, Edwin Crawford, aged 83 years, father of our fellow townsman, R. G. and T. N. Crawford, breathed his last. Deceased was one of the pioneers who made the wilderness, where now is situated this thriving place, blossom like the rose. It was a spirit of firmness, kind heart and full of devotion to principle.

Deeply do we sympathize with the mourning friends and relatives of the subject of this brief notice, and sincerely trust that a living faith will lead them to the green fields and shady groves of their sunlit bourne to which the good spirit of Edwin Crawford has gone.

Deceased was buried in Union Cemetery, Bolivar, yesterday evening, at 8 o'clock, Rev. George R. Allen, of the M. E. Church, officiated at the grave.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—Clinton Lodge No. 74, and Bolivar Chapter No. 34, F. & A. M., have set apart the 27th day of this month (St. John's Day) for the public installation of their officers, elected for the ensuing year.
